Hot weather and lack of rain lifted 10178 the corn market until reports were received of a heavy downpour at Lincoln, Neb After opening unchanged to 1a 1% higher the gains nearly all disap-Oats were governed largely by the Oats were governed largely by the action of corn. The amount of buying was only fair.

Provisions rose on account of the builish showing of the semi-monthly statement of warehouse stocks. Declines in the hog market were virtually ignored.

Crop damage reports from the southwest tended later to cause a fresh corn advance. The close, nevertheless, was weak, ¼a¾ off to ¼ up, as compared with Saturday's final figures.

Word that black rust had spread into Canada led afterward to a sharp wheat rally, which, however, was not long maintained. The close was weak, ¼ to ¼a¾ net lower, with July at 1.11½ and September at 1.12¾a1.12¾.

Progressives Might Come in.

Virgil G. Hinshaw of Chicago, national chairman of the prohibition party, declared today that he believes the remnants of the progressive party an apparent northward movement, and dion to join with the prohibitionists. advices have been issued accordingly.

Unsettled, showery weather will prevail tonight and tomorrow in New England and the middle Atlantic states, while in the south the weather will be partly cloudy, with thundershowers tomorrow in Alabama, Georgia and Florida. Elsewhere east of the Mississippi river fair weather will prevail.

It will be somewhat cooler in New England.

The winds along the New England coast will be moderate northwest to north; on the middle Atlantic coast.

Change of Name Discussed.

Prohibition leaders have discussed riously the advisability of changing their party name. Eugene N. Foss of Massachusetts has said the ticket could win in the coming campaign with himself as its leader and a new name that would embrace more than the single issue of prohibition.

Opposed to the new ideas of fusion, changes of name and adoption of the surviving progressives are a number of lending prohibitionists, among them Eugene W. Chafin, the presidential nominee in 1908 and 1912.

J. Frank Hanly of Indiana is willing to accept the nomination under the old party name, it is understood. William Sulzer of New York, it is said, will make no objection to the old party designation if he is nominated.
